

Stop 1: Canterbury Museum

Stop location: Rolleston Avenue, outside Canterbury Museum

Experience New Zealand's rich cultural and natural heritage at the Canterbury Museum. Learn about the past, present and future of Canterbury. View rare Maori artefacts, find out about Christchurch's link to the Antarctic, and The Christchurch Street will transport you back in time with sights and sounds of pioneering days.

Stop 2: Mona Vale

Stop location: Fendalton Road, Fendalton

Mona Vale is home to one of Christchurch's most beautiful garden settings. Mature trees, rose gardens, a water lily pond, meandering river and sloping lawns, provide a stunning backdrop to Mona Vale Homestead. The Homestead and Gate House are both listed buildings with Heritage New Zealand.

Stop 6: Margaret Mahy Playground

Drive by only. No Stop

Named after one of New Zealand's most acclaimed children's book authors, this magical wonderland is a child's paradise. With a 4m wide slide, double flying fox, water cannons, sandpit, climbing web, splash pad, picnic and BBQ area, food and coffee carts - this is the perfect stop for families.

Stop 7: Cathedral Square

Stop location: In front of the Cathedral near the tram stop, toilets and chessboard

Cathedral Square is the geographical centre and heart of Christchurch. It has long been a community focal point, a place where the community comes together, in good times and bad.

The Christchurch Cathedral is located here and was badly damaged in the February 2011 earthquake. Restoration has been confirmed and will take up to six years to complete.
