2-Day Hop-On Hop-Off Bus Tour

For more information and details of any impact on Hop-On Hop-Off bus services due to events in Central London please see the Big Bus website.

Getting in

Just show your pass when boarding.

For details of the route, stopping points, and days of operation for Big Bus, please visit bigbustours.com.

A bus tour is a great way to see the top sights around London, however, we advise against using bus tours as a mode of transportation around the city. For more efficient transport - we'd suggest using London's public transport networks.

Wheelchair accessibility

To avoid disappointment, Big Bus will need to confirm in advance whether your wheelchair can be accommodated on board. Please contact them in advance with information about your wheelchair, including an indication of the width and weight of the chair. Please note that mobility scooters cannot be accommodated on board buses due to size and weight.

FAQs

Can I get off and rejoin the bus tour at any stop?

Yes, you can hop on and off at any designated stop throughout the day.

How long does the bus tour take to complete without hopping off?

The complete loop takes approximately two and a half hours, depending on traffic.

Are the bus tours guided?

There is no live commentary but in-seat audio guides are included as part of your experience. They are available in English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Mandarin and Brazilian Portuguese.

Are the buses wheelchair accessible?

To avoid disappointment, Big Bus will need to confirm in advance whether your wheelchair can be accommodated on board. Please contact them in advance with information about your wheelchair, including an indication of the width and weight of the chair.

Please note that mobility scooters cannot be accommodated on board buses due to size and weight.

If you have any questions, please contact Big Bus for further information.

What attractions and landmarks can I see on the bus tour?

You will pass by and have the opportunity to hop off at top landmarks such as the Tower of London, Buckingham Palace, and Big Ben.

Tower of London

For more information, visit the Tower of London website.

Getting in

Enter via Middle Tower (opposite the Tower shop). Join the 'bought tickets' line and have your pass ready to be scanned by a member of staff. Once validated, you will pass through security/bag check before being admitted through Middle Tower.

- Pass customers do not need to book Tower of London tickets in advance but please be aware that at busy times, you may be asked to wait for the next available time slot.
- You may need to wait in line to pass through security checks.

Busy tip

The Crown Jewels are a major attraction at the Tower of London. Wait times to view them can be lengthy.

Hours of Operation

March 1 to October 26

Tuesday to Saturday: 9AM to 5:30PM (last recommended admission 3.30PM)

Sunday to Monday: 10AM to 5:30PM (last recommended admission 3.30PM)

October 27 to December 31

Tuesday to Saturday: 9AM to 4:30PM (last recommended admission 3PM)

Sunday to Monday: 10AM to 4:30PM (last recommended admission 3PM)

Please note that from 6 May to 11 November 2025, the Tower of London will have a new, commemorative display of ceramic poppies to mark the 80th anniversary of the end of World War II. We anticipate that during this time, especially at the start and end of the display period, the Tower will be even more popular. At busy times, you might be asked to wait for the next available timeslot. Afternoons are generally less busy than morning visits.

We recommend checking the attraction's own website for any last-minute operational changes, especially on Mondays and Sundays as these are most subject to change.

Closings & Holidays

Westminster Abbey

For more information, please visit the Westminster Abbey website.

Getting in

Enter via the North Green, which runs between the Abbey and Broad Sanctuary. Before entering the Abbey, you will pass through security/bag check. On busy days, it might be necessary to continue queuing after security. Your passes will be scanned and validated at a ticket booth inside the Abbey and you will be issued with a paper ticket as proof of admission.

Pass customers do not need to pre-book but admission to the Abbey is always subject to availability. It's a very popular attraction and wait times can be long. For the best experience, we recommend visiting in the early afternoon.

FAQs

Where is Westminster Abbey?

The Abbey is located in the heart of the City of Westminster, just west of the similarly impressive Palace of Westminster.

How old is Westminster Abbey?

The Abbey has existed for over 1060 years, making it one of the oldest religious places of worship in England. A church was founded on the site of the Abbey in the 7th Century, and construction of the present church began in 1245, on the orders of King Henry III.

Where is the nave in Westminster Abbey?

The visually stunning nave is at the far western end of the Abbey and has become a place of homage thanks to the numerous graves and memorials of famous people that exist here.

FAQs

What is a Hop-on Hop-off open top bus tour of Windsor?

It is a sightseeing tour of Windsor on a double-decker open-top bus that allows passengers to hop on and off at any of the designated stops along the route.

What are some of the attractions covered in the Hop-on Hop-off open top bus tour of Windsor?

Some of the attractions covered in the tour include Windsor Castle, Eton College, Windsor Bridge, and the Royal Windsor Wheel.

How often do the Hop-on Hop-off open top buses run in Windsor?

The buses typically run every 30 minutes, but this may vary depending on traffic and other factors.

How long does the Hop-on Hop-off open top bus tour of Windsor take?

The tour takes approximately 1 hour and 15 minutes if you stay on the bus for the entire route, but you can take as much time as you like at each stop.

Are there any guided commentary or audio guides available on the Hop-on Hop-off open top bus tour of Windsor?

Yes, passengers can listen to pre-recorded commentary in multiple languages or join a live-guided tour in English.

Can I bring food and drinks on the Hop-on Hop-off open top bus tour of Windsor?

Chessington World of Adventures Resort

For more information please see the Chessington World of Adventures website.

Getting in

Just head straight to the turnstiles and show your pass and email booking confirmation. Once you've had everything scanned, you're good to go!

The total journey time to the resort from central London by public transport is approximately 45 minutes. Please make sure you factor this into your plans.

FAQs

How do I get to Chessington World of Adventures from London?

We recommend taking the train from London Waterloo to Chessington South station which takes 36 minutes. From here the park is a 15-minute walk or the number 71 bus is a 6-minute journey.

Are there any age or height restrictions for the rides?

Yes, some rides at Chessington have age, height, or health restrictions for safety reasons. These restrictions vary depending on the ride, so we recommended checking the information boards at the entrance of each ride.

Can I bring outside food and drinks into the park?

Outside food and drinks are generally not permitted inside but, there are loads of dining options available within the park, offering a variety of cuisines to suit different tastes and dietary requirements.

Is there a dress code for visiting Chessington?

There isn't a strict dress code, but you'll want to be comfortable for a day outdoors with lots of walking around the park. Closed-toe shoes are recommended, especially for those planning to enjoy the rides.

Hours of Operation

The opening times can vary, so for the most up-to-date hours, we recommend checking the Chessington World of Adventures Resort website.

Getting in

At Embankment Station the 'Embankment Pier Exit' is the exit of the station closest to the river. On arrival please look for your tour guide holding the yellow umbrella.

FAQs

What pubs will we visit on the tour?

The tour calls at four historic pubs, but which exact pubs they are will vary depending on the day, time of year and pub availability.

Are drinks included?

No, you'll have to pay for your own, but there will be time to have a drink in each pub visited.

Will we have time to eat in any of the pubs?

No, the stops aren't long enough to order, wait for and eat food, so we recommend eating before the tour or choosing one of the many great local pubs and restaurants afterwards.

I'm under 18. Can I join the tour?

No, the tour is strictly for over-18s only. Please bring a valid form of identification (e.g. passport or driver's license) as you may be asked to present these by pub staff.

Getting in

On arrival, after any bag searches, head to the entrance gates - next to the Ticket Office - to have your pass scanned and validated. Keep your confirmation email handy in case you need it. Then you're good to go!

FAQs

How do I get to LEGOLAND® Windsor Resort from London?

LEGOLAND® is easily accessible from London by car, train, or bus. You can take a direct train from London Paddington or Waterloo to Windsor & Eton Central Station, followed by a short bus or taxi ride to the park. There's lots of parking on site too if you have a car and would prefer to drive.

Are there any age or height restrictions for the rides?

Yes, some rides at LEGOLAND® have age, height, or health restrictions for safety reasons. These restrictions vary depending on the ride, so we recommend checking the information boards at the entrance of each attraction.

Can I bring outside food and drinks into the park?

Sure, outside food and drinks are generally permitted inside the park, there are designated picnic areas where guests can enjoy their own refreshments. However, glass containers and alcohol are not allowed. If you don't want to bring food with you, there are also lots of tasty dining options available within the park for all tastes and dietary requirements.

Is there a dress code for visiting LEGOLAND® Windsor Resort?

Nope, there's no strict dress code, but we would recommend comfy, weather-appropriate clothing and footwear for a day of walking around the park. Closed-toe shoes are recommended for those planning to go on the rides.

Hours of Operation

The opening times can vary, so for the most up-to-date hours, we recommend checking the LEGOLAND® Windsor Resort website.
